

LEARNING EVENT SUPPORT

MCW-Led Funding Opportunity Overview

Supporting MCW-led learning events to build knowledge, skills, and networks among Wisconsin's health professionals.

FUNDING SUMMARY

AHW's MCW-Led Learning Event Support funding opportunity supports Wisconsin-based learning events that build knowledge, skills, and networks among Wisconsin's current and future health professionals

- Up to $5,000 is available per learning event to support direct, non-personnel, event-specific costs
- Applications are accepted on rolling first-come, first-serve basis until available funds have been distributed

ELIGIBILITY

Events supported through AHW's MCW-Led Learning Event Support funding opportunity must be hosted by an eligible MCW faculty member, and:

- Be held in the state of Wisconsin
- Engage participants who are primarily Wisconsin-based health workforce professionals and/or the next generation of leaders, including healthcare providers, health researchers, and community and public health professionals
- Aim to build participant capacity, knowledge, skills or networks that support participants to apply their learnings to their work
- Include an in-person learning component
- Be new or innovative events, or incorporate new topics and approaches to prior iterations of existing events
